About Word&Way: Founded in 1896, Word&Way provides church leaders and congregations with news, opinion and features. Our target audience is Baptist denominations in the Midwest where we seek to be a force for good and unifying influence in Baptist life. Our mission is to inform and inspire in print and electronically through our magazine, website, eNewsletter and social media.

Word&Way has received almost 20 awards in the past four years for both writing and design from Baptist Communicators Association, Religion Communications Council and Associated Church Press. 2017 Award recognitions include second in regional denominational magazines (ACP); first in single news story (RCC); and second opinion/editorial writing (BCA).
